

candy shop (1999)
m+w: andrew bird

well piece by piece and nail by nail it'll all come down someday before the fires of hell you let me in your house

you let me in your house with a hammer

set to drop or set to stun tit for tat and bone for bone i'm going to set fire to your glamour

rock that candy shop
set it on fire

run away and watch it burn

smell the ashes in the urn of this silly game we're sure to tire

let it rock.
