hesitating for 30 years she made up her mind finally the first words
what shall they be?

she'll live to see
'letter' reach the addressee!
is he still alive?

time is up! going to end
where and when
will it be in harmony?
her last wish would be with him along
who could be lonely?

contented silently
her vow worked magically from here to eternity

does he feel! think! love! hate! is he strong?
is he still the one she once met?
there is no answer yet

she lives with unbearable pains just endures for him will he move on! come along?

time is up! going to end
where and when
will it be in harmony?
her last wish would be with him along
who could be lonely?

there is nothing she does regret nothing to restore
she is well! her love is not gone
