

the good way
m+w: fatima spar

do you know what you are doin'?
you call me on the phone and you freak out just because i was not alone you can hug and kiss me held back you think you can treat me like that now that i start to reject you fall in love

now that i feel vivid
strong and alive
you can't bear it. you do ruin think that you don't know what you are doin' i've been waiting for your loving for so many years now what you desire fits not with my needs

do you think i can fall into blue? my sky is grey for you it's not my sun that is shining down on you you let me wait for much too long walked your river all alone now i go away

and you fall in love

everything that was dear to me embraceable
years of dreamy feelings it's over and gone by
