

trust

i would not like to be jesus nor the other great prophet himself i do not trust in jesus nor the man whose name i do not dare to pronounce you preach life and immortality stay here with wide open doors the bright side of life you'll always see but i do not believe in mankind

i woo you
come trust in me rely on me
in your depths of despair i'll be there you are gracious to the highest degree this goodness doesn't cover me if my birth causes people's agony that means their aggression does upset me

come trust in me

some wish to see us beheaded for the faith we were born into' condemned your lord has mercy upon us all but you hangmen face my scorn

trust in me
do you believe
do you believe...
